

GENE TEIGLAND

2819 Southlawn Dr. Maplewood, MN 55109 • 612-396-7842 • gteigland@tiger12.com

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

Web Developer/Video Production

May 2007 - Current (Tiger12, LLC)

Own and operate a multi-media production company. Projects included web design, ecommerce sites, content management systems, corporate video, creative media campaigns. Responsible for project proposals, hiring vendors, code, write, produce, and edit content for web & video projects.

Producer/Director/Post-Production Supervisor

April 2005 - April 2007 (The Movie Partners)

Hire lead personnel and vendors, prepare budgets, create and maintain production schedule, audition and select talent, communicate vision with all department heads and talent, create and maintain a team orientated working environment that produces a strong work ethic and desired results.

Multi-Media Manager

October 2004 - April 2005 (B.Sting Entertainment)

Create and implement a web based marketing model with coordinating multi-media promotions that communicates the company's brand objectives, build web layouts that maximizes user interactivity and manage web team to implement web strategies and objectives, hire outside vendors/contractors, coordinate internal personnel for location shooting, oversee production for media and web launch at the Mall of America.

Special Programs Producer

March 1997 - August 2004 (CTN Studios)

Produce and direct various media productions including documentaries, live weekly newscasts, live election coverage, live sporting events and promotional campaigns, design and edit show opens, animated segues, promos, news packs and feature documentaries, build full page, OTS, lower third key graphics, and animations for productions and marketing materials, construct web site promoting programs and services offered by company.

E.L Camera Assistant

July 1996 - August 1996 (1996 Atlanta Olympic Games for Atlanta Olympic Broadcast)

Assigned to the world broadcast of the 1996 Olympic Games as a R.F. Catcher during the track and field events and as a grip for the Opening and Closing Ceremonies at Olympic Stadium.

EDUCATION

Bethel University - St. Paul, MN (1993-1997)

B.A. Media Communications

Canby High School - Canby, MN (1989-1993)

High School Diploma - Graduated with honors